

Rule of Law and Property Rights - What's next?

Project Title	Rule of Law and Property Rights - What's next?
Project Summary	Conduct research and provide an analysis that will help USAID/Kosovo develop future interventions in Rule of Law and Property Rights. As an intern, your research will put you at the forefront of enhancing the USG's goal of stable rule of law in Kosovo and an integral part of planning for future.
Country	Kosovo

Project Description

The intern will support USAID Kosovo Democracy and Governance Office with research/desk review of the rule of law and property rights in Kosovo. USAID and many other donors have invested in Rule of Law for many years, and recently embarked on working with the Government of Kosovo to deal with the property rights issues. There is a myriad of information, assessments, reports and analysis done on property rights and the challenges thereof. USAID/Kosovo is interested to have a synthesis of what should be the interventions in the future in the field of Rule of Law and its correlation with property rights. Your task will be to distill all relevant and available literature, assessments, reviews and analyze everything into a comprehensive and analytical, easy to understand report.
